

Ixchel Levendosky

has been teaching, choreographing and performing in the northern Colorado region since 1990. Hailing from Wyoming, schooled at the University of Utah, UC Boulder and CSU, and having danced professionally in Oklahoma, South Carolina, Kentucky, and Colorado, Ixchel has studied classical ballet and modern dance with many master teachers. Over the past 20+ years, she has shared her love and knowledge of dance with countless students throughout northern Colorado. Her passion thrives through the direction of her studio, the Front Range Classical Ballet Academy.

Deneice Dyer

is a Windsor resident with a BA in Dance and Drama from Texas Women's University. She has taught ballet, tap, jazz and tumbling to students from ages 3 to 103 in Nebraska, Texas and Colorado for over 25 years. In 2004 she started the youth dance program in Evans - Evans Kidz Dance at the Evans Community Center where the students perform all over the community and present programs twice a year. Also in Evans, she began Syncopation Station, a senior tap dance troupe with classes and performances for youth over 50. In 2006 at the opening of the Greeley Family Fun Plex, Deneice started Li'l Dancers dance program for youth. She was founder and director of Son-Shine Dance, Christian Dance Performing Group for Children, 2005-2008 which she envisions continuing sometime in the near future. She danced a season with the Canyon Concert Ballet in Fort Collins; and danced and taught extensively for the Festival Ballet and Civic Ballet in Denton, Texas since 1989.
